

Early Medieval China Group

Annual Meeting

Hilton New York, New York – Gramercy Suite A

March 29, 2003

Minutes

Attendees: 15 members

President Alan Berkowitz called the meeting to order and called for self introductions.

Treasurer's Report. Ken Klein reported that the current balance in the EMCG account stands at $XXXX.

Journal Report. Volume 8 should be ready for mailing in about six weeks. Volume 6 is now available online.

Website. The suggestion was made that the EMCG website be moved to its own, independent domain: earlymedievalchina.com.

Alan reported that the Board had sent in an application for the Group to become an AAS affiliate. This will allow EMCG to sponsor panel, and we can sponsor more than one in a year.

Alan suggested that we consider combining the Thursday text reading session and the Saturday business meeting into one Saturday meeting.

Alan suggested that EMCG consider sponsoring a panel at the American Orientalist Society, at either the national or western meeting.

Al Dien announced that he has a database of 1500 tomb articles from Kao Gu and he is willing to share the information by answering specific questions.